Commercial Inspections

Apartment complexes, shopping centers, convenience stores, industrial warehouses, restaurants, hotels, motels, office buildings ...

A to Z is currently inspecting the buildout of a Starbucks, a Bennigans, and an on-site prefab CORE construction development being shipped to Lawton and a strip shopping center. A to Z is the inspection company of choice for some major investment banking firms from Ireland to California and would value the opportunity to earn your ongoing business.

Depending on your needs and wants, A to Z depends on a cadre of licensed professionals;

Structural Engineer: RPC, Rob Chynoweth, P.E., S.E. CB.
Active Engineer and an Instructor at OSU/OKC (C) 405-826-8375

Although there are other professionals that we occasionally call in, for instance sewer line scoping, these are the ones we work with daily. A to Z Inspectors hold a vast number of degrees and certifications and Jack Werner, the owner, teaches inspections at Francis Tuttle Technology Center and Moore/Norman Technology Center.

Please tell us how we may be of service to you.
